Description

A rare and interesting mid-19th-century painting depicting a lively lakeside landscape at twilight...The location is not specified, but a quick online search suggests it may be Lake Lucerne in Switzerland...The work is signed in the lower left corner by the German artist EGIDIUS FEDERLE(1810-1876) : He was active in the mid-19th century and distinguished himself by primarily depicting natural landscapes, in the region of Neuchâtel and on the shores of Lake Constance.. Note: this artist's career unfolded primarily in Switzerland since he settled at Laufen Castle in 1833: There, he studied at Bleuler's painting school while residing at Schloss Laufen, a castle overlooking the famous Rhine Falls in Switzerland. He spent many years there creating highly detailed landscape views,
