Description

Jules CAVAILLÈS (1901-1977) - Still Life with a Bouquet of Flowers, Binoculars, and a Chess Piece A superb oil on canvas depicting an elegant and poetic composition, characteristic of Jules Cavaillès's work. Against a background of luminous, rosy hues, the artist depicts a large bouquet of assorted flowers (tulips, irises, anemones) arranged in a clear glass vase. The scene is enhanced by a poetic still life featuring a bowl of fresh cherries, a pair of theater binoculars, and a wooden chess knight. True to the Poetic Reality movement, of which Cavaillès was a leading figure, this work stands out for the freshness of its colors, the freedom of its brushwork, and the gentle atmosphere it evokes. Technique: Oil on canvas Signature: Signed in the upper right corner J. CAVAILLÈS Frame:
