Description

Pair of monumental gilt and patinated bronze candelabra, Neoclassical style - Height 85 cm - 19th century
An elegant pair of decorative candelabra crafted in gilt and patinated bronze, featuring refined sculptural compositions inspired by classical antiquity. Each candelabrum depicts a gracefully draped female figure in motion, raising one arm to support an elaborate arrangement of candle branches, richly decorated with scrolling foliage, floral motifs and acanthus leaves. The dark-patinated bronze figures stand upon gilded spheres supported by finely fluted columns, resting on stepped square bases. The contrast between the warm gilded bronze and the darker patinated figures enhances the sculptural quality and decorative character of the pair. Height: 85 cm each. With signs of age, wear and gilding on
