Description

A set of six Victorian chairs crafted from fine mahogany, originating from England in the mid-19th century. The open-back design is elegant and airy, while the front legs are skillfully turned and carved, topped with practical casters that make moving the chairs easy. The seat is padded and covered with a cushion fabric, offering comfort and a touch of sophistication. These chairs are a perfect example of Victorian craftsmanship, ideal for enhancing classic interiors or adding a touch of history to contemporary spaces. Product Condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the furniture as completely as possible through the photos.
