Description

Early 20th-century-style wall sconces.Vintage "faux wood" sconces from the 1970s. Weight: 7.3 kg per pair.The weight confirms that this is a heavy, very high-density resin (often a composite resin reinforced with stone powder), designed to support weight as a wall sconce or to make a striking visual statement on a wall.They depict expressive folkloric figures with pronounced rustic details reminiscent of gnomes or grotesque figures from the early 20th century.They were designed to offer the visual and physical prestige of antique woodwork.Good condition. Dimensions: Height 36 cm, width 20 cm, depth 22 cm.- This item is available for immediate purchase, payable via PayPal; we also accept bank transfers or French checks.- We do not accept sales over the phone; sales will be
