Description

A refined oil painting on canvas, likely from the French school, dating to the mid-19th century (circa 1840-1860), depicting an elegant courtly scene featuring two young ladies and a gentleman in rich period costumes, set in a refined aristocratic interior. The work stands out for its painterly quality, the delicacy of the skin tones, the refined rendering of the silky fabrics, and the precision of the details. It bears a signature in the lower right corner, legible as "P. Dorsey." The painting is complemented by an important carved and gilded wooden frame, featuring foliage motifs and fluting in the neoclassical style. Canvas dimensions: 75 × 60 cm. Dimensions with frame: 88 × 75 cm.
