Description

Louis XVI-era marquetry cabinet, circa 1780. Elegant cabinet, inlaid with rosewood, Louis XVI period, 18th century. This small cabinet opens with two hinged doors on the front and features four panels on the front. Its front posts are beveled with simulated fluting. It is topped with a lovely, molded St. Anne gray marble top, also beveled. Remarkable marquetry work featuring butterfly wings. Very beautiful gilded and chiseled bronze ornamentation, including drop motifs, mascarons, and lock plates. Attractive buffed varnish finish. Comes with its key. Furniture of fine craftsmanship, with understated and refined lines. This small cabinet combines practical utility with its generous storage space; you can also use it to display your art and decorative objects. But it also makes a
