Description

This carved and gilded wooden mirror, from mid-19th-century Italy, features a molded and richly carved frame. The frame is characterized by an inner frieze of interlocking leaves, while floral and foliage carvings adorn the four corners and the middle of the sides. An additional outer frieze adds depth and complexity to the design, creating a refined balance between elegance and craftsmanship. This mirror is a representative example of the decorative style of the era and adds a touch of historic refinement to any room. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
