Description

A set of ten Italian neoclassical armchairs dating from the third quarter of the 19th century, featuring a carved and gilded wooden frame. The rounded backrest features a frame decorated with a Greek fret pattern, with an upholstered and removable inner panel, offering customizable comfort. The seat, which is also upholstered and removable, is surrounded by a carved frame that extends harmoniously over the curved armrests and into the band below. The tapered truncated conical legs lend stability and elegance to the structure. The gilding, entirely applied with gold leaf, enhances the refinement of the piece, making these armchairs a perfect example of the neoclassical style. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual
