Description

A delicate, lively landscape depicting a group of figures on a beach bordering a body of water--likely the Côte de Grâce--whose shores are lined with trees. A label on the back reads "Côte de Grâce," 89. It is signed "Stéfani*" in the lower right corner. The brushwork is lively and energetic. It is an oil on panel. The gilded wooden frame in the Louis XV style, featuring fluted moldings and acanthus decoration, showcases the painting perfectly. Dimensions: frame: 41 x 46 cm, *Stefani is a French Post-Impressionist painter, born in Roubaix in 1938, where he studied painting. In the 1960s, he became one of the founding members of the Association des Artistes de la Côte d'Opale. He has participated in numerous exhibitions throughout France and has won many awards for his work. Over the years,
