Description

Neo-Impressionist school. Oil on canvas, "In the Distance, the Hamlet with Colorful Roofs," signed or labeled "Eccement" (to be determined) in the lower right corner. 38 x 46 cm. French school of the 1920s. We have been unable to determine the origin or provenance of this painting, whose qualities are evident. However, we recognize the style of Gustave Cariot, whose work--whether in terms of technique or subject matter--corresponds in every respect to the works of the famous painter known for his use of simultaneous contrast. A wonderfully luminous work that masterfully captures the radiant sunshine of a summer afternoon. Beautiful painted and patinated carved wooden frame in the Montparnasse style (with some imperfections and wear); painting in good condition. 1,100 euros.
