Description

A large oil-on-canvas painting depicting a country road lined with trees in autumn colors, opening onto a rolling landscape. A beautiful composition in warm tones, playing on the contrasts between the golden foliage, the shaded undergrowth, and the light in the sky. The painting bears, in the lower right corner, a dedication "To my friend Vidal", followed by a signature that remains to be deciphered and the date 1933. The work is presented in a very beautiful and imposing antique dark wood frame with wide, flat bands, accented by a thin frieze carved with ovals. Date: 1933 Medium: oil on canvas Artist: to be identified; signature to be deciphered Frame: large antique molded wooden frame Frame dimensions: 112X82 Painting dimensions: 84X54
