Description

A two-section bookcase of Emilian origin, made of walnut. A rare and refined neoclassical display cabinet with a balanced design, bearing a coat of arms on the upper crossbar and a signature on the lower one. The pyramid-shaped legs give the compact first section a slender appearance, while the upper section is tall and imposing, highlighting the original blown glass panes and providing excellent light penetration. A captivating piece that stands out at first glance. The piece is in pristine condition. Dimensions (cm): W 135, D 55, H 240. WOULD YOU LIKE TO SEE MORE OF OUR ANTIQUE DISPLAY CABINETS?
