Description

Elegant French chandelier from the Napoleon III period, dating from the second half of the 19th century, circa 1870-1880. This chandelier features a remarkable gilded bronze frame, richly adorned with plant motifs, finely chiseled foliage, volutes, and sculpted decorative elements. Its refined design is enhanced by turquoise-blue glass tulips with delicately crafted floral forms, adding a touch of original and luminous color to the piece. The fluted central shaft and the sinuous arms, adorned with foliage, reflect the decorative style of the Napoleon III era. The quality of its decoration and the combination of gilded bronze and blue glass give this chandelier a particularly decorative character. A charming piece, ideal for a classic interior, a home with character, or an eclectic decor blending antiques with more
