Description

Rare barbotine (majolica) planter from the famous Keller et Guérin (K&G) factory in Lunéville, dating from the late 19th century / early 20th century (Art Nouveau period). Features and highlights: Unique relief decoration: Highly original motifs evoking the world of distilling, old-fashioned pharmacies, or chemistry (still, vials, bottles against a stone wall background). A much rarer design than the classic floral motifs. Markings: "LUNÉVILLE K & G" signature highlighted on a pink ribbon on the front. Presence of the authentic "KG" hallmark engraved beneath the base, along with its workshop marks. Colors: A superb harmony of beige, ochre, green, and pink tones, with a luminous blue enamel interior. Condition: Good condition. The enamel has retained all of its
