Description

Charles CHARDAR (1885-1969) - Bouquet of Cosmos in a Ceramic Vase, 1948 Oil on canvas, signed and dated "CHARDAR 1948" in the lower right corner. A beautiful and luminous floral composition depicting a generous bouquet of cosmos in vibrant shades of white, pink, and purplish red. The flowers are arranged in a green-glazed ceramic tripod baluster vase with engraved motifs, resting on an entablature. The painting is rich in texture, executed with a beautiful impasto and a subtle sense of light, characteristic of the artist's still lifes. The strong contrast with the dark background and the blue drapery on the right particularly highlights the brilliance of the cosmos petals.
