Description

A large, ornate vintage punch or mulled wine pot from the 1960s, made of thick earthenware glazed in midnight blue and beige, a romantic and imposing centerpiece featuring six German fortresses, punctuating the design and topped by a central figure of a drinker holding a goblet and seated on a bed of grapes; Grapes are a prominent feature, along with vine leaves and vines, notably on the ornate and sturdy handles; this decorative and whimsical piece celebrates German wines in a medieval spirit; it is in perfect condition and can be used to serve soup--perhaps with a splash of wine....! A beautiful, powerful piece--delightfully retro, highly decorative, and in perfect condition
