Description

Émile Gallé (1846-1904) Miniature chalice inspired by Japanese tea and/or sake ceremonies, Nancy, circa 1885-1890 Authentic Émile Gallé Miniature Sake / Tea Cup or Cabinet Vase with Enameled Chrysanthemums, France, circa 1885-1890 A fine and rare French Art Nouveau miniature chalice shaped by Émile Gallé, dating from his celebrated early Japonisme period (circa 1885-1890). Blown in pale green-tinted textured glass with an optic/martelé effect, the piece features finely hand-enameled and gilded decoration depicting stylized chrysanthemum blossoms and curling foliage. The shape is closely derived from Japanese tea ceremony and sake drinking vessels (guinomi and san-san-kudo), reflecting Gallé's deep scholarly fascination with Far Eastern botanical and
