Description

A charming oil painting on wood panel signed "F. Keller" in the lower left corner, depicting an elegant young woman absorbed in her reading, comfortably seated in an armchair in a lovely bourgeois living room. This delicate interior scene immerses us in the peaceful and refined atmosphere of an early 20th-century home. The young woman, dressed in a long gown in shades of mauve and white, is seated near a large window through which soft natural light streams in. The meticulously arranged setting features elegant Louis XV-style furniture, a richly carved console table topped with a bouquet of flowers, mirrors with gilded frames, and a beautiful Oriental rug in warm colors. A composition full of charm and poetry, in which the painter has delicately captured the light, the intimacy of the
