Description

A majestic and elegant greyhound carved from white glazed ceramic, depicted sitting with its head held high and its gaze turned upward. The sculpture features a beautiful, slender silhouette--characteristic of greyhounds--with meticulous detailing that highlights the animal's musculature, slender legs, and elegant lines. The dog rests on a mustard-yellow cushion with soft contours, creating a particularly striking decorative contrast with the whiteness of the ceramic. With its imposing dimensions and sculptural presence, this piece is a distinctive decorative element, ideal for a classic, eclectic, or contemporary interior. Period: 20th century; exact date to be determined. Material: glazed ceramic. Colors: white and mustard yellow. Height: 87 cm. Condition: original
