Description

A luminous and vibrant spring painting by the Post-Impressionist painter Ernest Moulines. The artist celebrates spring through this dazzling tree in bloom, whose small splashes of pinkish-white dot the canvas. Oil on canvas signed lower left. Dimensions: 55 x 46 cm. With frame: 73 x 64 cm. The background landscape is mountainous. We can place this work in Switzerland. The paint, applied in thick, colorful strokes, gives the painting a beautiful vibrancy. The work reflects a particularly lively approach to landscape painting. Bibliography: Ernest Molines was born in Béziers and lived primarily in Paris. He is best known for his landscapes, scenes of Venice and the Seine, still lifes, and scenes with figures. In Paris, he befriended renowned artists such as Claude-Émile Schuffenecker, Élisée Maclet, and
