Description

Jacques Liévin (Eugène Galien-Laloue 1854-1941) - Landscape with Sheep, 1886
Description: A charming and luminous oil on canvas depicting a bucolic scene brought to life by two sheep grazing in the foreground in a lush green pasture, shaded by a large leafy tree. The composition opens onto a background of rolling countryside beneath a clear sky dotted with light clouds. The work is signed "J. Liévin" in the lower right corner and dated "86" (for 1886). Jacques Liévin is one of the most famous and sought-after pseudonyms of Eugène Galien-Laloue, an iconic painter of the French school, known primarily for his Parisian views but who excelled just as much in his rural landscapes and countryside scenes under this signature. The artist's characteristic finesse of brushwork,
