Description

Important complete set of the Latvian Order of the Three Stars, Second Class, produced in the 1920s-1930s by the renowned insignia manufacturer F.W. Müller in Riga. The set includes the neck insignia with its original ribbon, the breast plate, and its original case. The insignia is crafted from 875-thousandths gold-plated silver, enhanced with white and blue grand feu enamel of remarkable quality. The plaque, featuring eight radiating points, is crafted from finely chased silver. Its central medallion depicts three gilded stars on a blue enamel background, surrounded by the national motto of the Republic of Latvia. This set is an authentic testament to the early period of the Latvian state's highest honorary distinction and perfectly illustrates the exceptional craftsmanship of the F.W. Müller
