Antique Decorative Textile Made Of Red And Gold Silk Velvet, With Fringe

350 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Linen

Description

An elegant antique textile decorative piece, crafted from garnet-red silk velvet with a golden floral design, accented by rich metallic braids and a spectacular fringe in shades of bronze and gold.The design, featuring large, blooming flowers, foliage, and scrollwork delicately rendered on a gold background, offers a sumptuous contrast to the deep red of the velvet. The gold braids harmoniously frame the composition, while the long fringes lend movement and grandeur to the piece.Fully lined, this piece could serve as a valance, a drape, or a decorative textile for a distinctive interior. However, its original use remains to be determined with certainty.With its warm colors, rich materials, and theatrical appeal, it will captivate collectors of antique textiles, interior
