Description

Silk Damask with Vases, Pomegranates and Carnations, Italy, 17th Century, 148 × 63 cm
Crimson red silk damask.

Italian manufacture, probably Florentine.

Dimensions: 148 × 63 cm (58.27 × 24.80 inches).

Panel made from a single piece of fabric, without joining seams. The Baroque decoration features gadrooned vases holding arrangements of large leaves, stylised pomegranates and carnations, accompanied by scrolling stems and volutes. The contrast between lustrous and matte surfaces defines the pattern.

Retains an antique lining and antique openwork trim finished with a short fringe. Hanging loops are present.

Shows signs of age while retaining a striking decorative presence through the richness and
