Description

Lieutenant Colonel's kepi of the Dragoons.
1919-1931. Cap and turban in madder-red cloth adorned with a Hungarian bow on top. Black felt headband. Silver-plated metal front insignia. Rank insignia: 5 gold-and-silver soutaches indicating the rank of lieutenant colonel. Functional, thin gold-lined chin strap, fastened by two small smooth buttons. Overall condition: Exterior: Very good overall condition for its age. The fabric is well-preserved, with no major visible moth holes. The gold embroidery has retained a beautiful patina. Interior: Original condition. The black satin lining is complete. The inner leather sweatband (sheepskin) shows signs of use, drying out, and natural wear and perforations on the back (see photos). Ideal for collectors of French militaria, historical reenactment, or a display case
