Large portrait of Emperor Francis I Stephen, oil on canvas, 18th century. A very beautiful oil painting on canvas in its original frame, most likely by Martin van Meytens. Martin van Meytens (June 24, 1695 - March 23, 1770) was a Swedish-Austrian painter who painted members of the Austrian royal court, such as Marie Antoinette, Maria Theresa of Austria, Francis I, Holy Roman Emperor, the emperor's family, and members of the local aristocracy. His painting style inspired many other artists to work in a similar style. Frans Stefan, known in the Southern Netherlands as Frans van Lorraine, was Duke of Lorraine as Frans III Stefan from 1729 to 1737, Grand Duke of Tuscany as Frans II Stefan or Frans Stefan from 1737 to 1765, and Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire as Frans I Stefan from
