Description

A 5-ruble gold coin minted in 1888 during the reign of Emperor Alexander III. Struck in 900-thousandths gold at the Saint Petersburg Mint, it is part of the standard coinage of the Russian Empire from the second half of the 19th century. The obverse features a profile portrait of Emperor Alexander III facing right, surrounded by the legend: "?. ?. ????????? III ????????? ? ????????? ?????????? ." The reverse is adorned with the Great Imperial Coat of Arms of the Russian Empire, depicting the double-headed eagle beneath three imperial crowns, bearing on its wings the shields of the kingdoms and grand duchies, as well as the medallion of Saint George slaying the dragon on its breast. Below the coat of arms are the face value "5 ??????" and the date "1888." This coin is a remarkable example of
