Description

An elegant Louis XVI-style lamp made of celadon porcelain and chiseled, gilded bronze, dating from the 19th century,Notable for the harmony of its lines and the richness of its ornamentation, this elegant lamp features a superb celadon porcelain baluster vase, delicately enhanced with a white-on-blue floral design depicting flowering branches and foliage.The generous body, extended by a slender neck that tapers at its center, creates a balanced and refined silhouette.The soft celadon blue hue, subtly tinged with green, harmonizes beautifully with the warm luster of the chiseled and gilded bronze mount.The mount is distinguished by the delicacy of its ornamentation: an upper collar with foliage motifs, a central band decorated with leaves, a vegetal frieze highlighting the base of the vase,
