Description

An elegant Art Nouveau side table from Belgium, dating to the early 20th century. The circular top is centered with a beautifully glazed ceramic tile depicting two swans gracefully swimming along a winding river beneath a windswept pine tree. Rendered in soft greens, blues, and warm sunset tones, the tile captures the poetic naturalism that defines the Art Nouveau aesthetic. The tile is framed by a finely crafted wooden surround and supported by four slender tapering legs connected by gently curved stretchers, creating a light and refined silhouette. The combination of artistic ceramic decoration and graceful joinery makes this piece an attractive accent table, pedestal table, or plant stand. Both decorative and functional, this charming table reflects the enduring appeal of Art Nouveau design, where
