Description

An interesting 18th-century oil painting on canvas, depicting the Crucifixion of Christ. The composition features Jesus Christ on the cross at its center, surmounted by the traditional scroll bearing the inscription "I.N.R.I.". At the foot of the cross are depicted the main figures of the Gospel scene: on the left, the Virgin Mary, overcome with grief and wrapped in dark garments; in the center, Mary Magdalene, kneeling as she embraces the cross in an attitude of profound devotion; on the right, Saint John the Evangelist, wrapped in a large red cloak and gazing toward Christ. The work is characterized by the strong devotional intensity of the composition, its marked chromatic contrasts, and the typical style of 18th-century religious painting. The painting is set within a gilded and
