

Large Bust Of King Umberto I Of Italy - White Glazed Ceramic - Late 19th Century

2 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Description

An important bust depicting Umberto I of Savoy, King of Italy, who reigned from 1878 to 1900. The figure is immediately recognizable by his characteristic and imposing handlebars mustache, a distinctive feature of the king's official iconography. Umberto I is depicted in full military dress uniform, richly decorated with medals, insignia, braided cords, and ceremonial ornaments. A large draped cloak, finely sculpted and decorated, falls over his left shoulder. The sculpture features a meticulous rendering of the details of the face, the uniform, and the military decorations, with particular attention to the monumentality and solemnity of the official portrait. The bust rests on a shaped pedestal, also covered in a light glaze, which gives the entire piece an elegant and uniform appearance. The

Dealer

Galleria Serrao

Galleria Serrao Antiquariato

Tel : 081 764 1040

Mobile : +39 335 637 4857

Piazza San Pasquale a Chiaia 8/9

Napoli 80121

work appears to be made of white glazed ceramic, with a glossy finish that highlights the reliefs and sculptural details. A piece of remarkable decorative and collectible value, particularly of interest to collectors of the House of Savoy, Italian history, militaria, commemorative sculpture, and antique ceramics. Subject: King Umberto I of Italy Period: late 19th century / early 20th century Material: white glazed ceramic Type: commemorative bust Height: approximately 66 cm Width: approximately 54 cm