Description

Louis XV-style display cabinet, crafted in the Rococo style and characterized by curved lines, rosewood veneer featuring a diagonal flame pattern, and bronze ornaments with rocaille motifs. The centerpiece of this piece is its central panel, adorned with a Vernis Martin painting depicting a romantic courtly scene featuring an elegant couple in an idyllic landscape of gardens and woodland by the water's edge. The display cabinet features curved side panes, glass shelves, and graceful cabriole-style legs, finished with bronze feet. The crown molding, corner trim, and refined curves highlight the luxurious character and artisanal craftsmanship of this exceptional piece. Ideal for elegantly showcasing porcelain, silverware, or precious collectibles. The display cabinet comes with its original key.
