Description

Africa, Ivory Coast/Liberia, First half of the 20th century, ancient Dan wooden mask. It has a very distinctive shape, with circular eyes, a very prominent forehead, a long nose, thick lips, and a tiny chin. Mounted on a base, this "gunyeya"-type mask was used during running competitions organized to train men to run and fight. A rare piece due to its shape, it has a beautiful patina. Dimensions: Height 19.8 (mask only) or 31.5 with base; Depth 13; Width 11.5 (cm). Good condition, with signs of age (wear and/or past damage) that do not affect the piece's aesthetic appeal. The scale reference in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand. We take special care with our packaging by using optimal protective materials. Shipping includes insurance. Shipping rates: Metropolitan
