Description

Dimensions: 26 × 11 × 8.5 cm. Weight: 0.9 kg.Beautiful mold-blown forest-green glass bottle, probably given as a wedding gift.Rectangular in shape with a tapered neck, it features a pewter screw cap that ensures a tight seal.All four sides are engraved. The front bears a celebratory inscription: VIVAT, along with four initials--IK and IP--and the date 1772, likely year of wedding.In the Alpine regions of Switzerland, Germany, and Austria, this type of bottle was traditionally used for liqueurs and homemade spirits: genever, sloe brandy, or schnapps. A beautiful decorative object of a good size.Good condition, with no visible flaws. Instant purchase: payment by credit card or PayPal.eclectic -- We are not experts, but we have been in this businessfor over 50 years.Full refund with no
