Description

Elegant Empire-style center desk, made in France in the second half of the 19th century from mahogany and mahogany burl, characterized by a refined, monumental design and rich decoration inspired by the ornamental repertoire of the Napoleonic Empire. The desk features a large rectangular top with a molded edge and a leather-covered surface, framed by a wooden band. The front features four drawers--two side drawers stacked one above the other and two central drawers--embellished with elegant grilles and gilded bronze handles featuring Neoclassical ornamental motifs. A particularly noteworthy feature is the center-to-edge craftsmanship: the desk is, in fact, finished and decorated on the back as well. Origin: France Period: second half of the 1800s Style: Empire Dimensions: 126x69x79h
