Description

Robert Detheux (1932-2010) Large Surrealist Composition
Circa 1980 Mixed media on canvas
135 × 94 cm Signed on the back
Description Large canvas by Robert Detheux created around 1980, directly from his studio collection. The composition centers on a fragmented yet cohesive figure, constructed from crumpled, almost sculptural forms that unfold within a dark, textured space. The face, absorbed by shadow, and the body in tension give the work a presence that is both fragile and powerful. Here we find an artistic approach reminiscent of Giacometti's: the human figure reduced to its essence, confronted by the void that surrounds it, with particular attention paid to material and volume. A large-scale work--a rarity in Detheux's oeuvre (as the majority of his work consists of
