Description

A superb, large 18th-century Aubusson tapestry. It depicts a lively scene with birds in the foreground on the bank of a winding river. In the background is a mill, in front of which stands a donkey. Tall trees frame the foreground of the scene, accompanied by numerous plants and foliage. In the very far background, a village can be seen. The entire piece is framed by an intricately crafted border, composed of scrolls and swirls. The tapestry has retained its beautiful, vivid, and luminous colors across most of its surface. A few imperfections and restorations are visible in the photos, but overall the piece is in very good condition for its age. A high-quality work in good overall condition, very decorative and luminous.
