Description

A refined Belgian Art Deco side table dating from the 1920s, distinguished by its elegant proportions and balanced geometric design. Crafted in walnut veneer, the table showcases the rich warmth and subtle grain variations that became synonymous with high-quality Art Deco furniture. The square top features softly rounded corners, lending a sense of sophistication while retaining the period's characteristic emphasis on clean, architectural forms. Beneath, a practical lower shelf provides additional display or storage space, seamlessly integrated into the design. The striking cross-shaped base creates visual interest and structural stability, highlighting the craftsmanship and thoughtful construction of the piece. Its restrained decoration, harmonious lines, and beautiful walnut finish make this table a
