Description

An elegant pair of patinated bronze half-busts attributed to and signed by Julien Caussé, a refined master of late 19th-century French sculpture. The works depict two young figures with delicate features and lively expressions, characterized by the poetic naturalism typical of Belle Époque art.The finely chiseled details of the clothing, hairstyles, and headdresses highlight the sculptor's high-quality craftsmanship and artistic sensibility. The warm, burnished patina of the bronze creates a pleasing contrast with the golden hues of the bases, lending the ensemble great decorative elegance.Both busts rest on molded bases with marble plinths, a feature that further enhances their visual impact. Ideal for classic interiors, studies, libraries, or spaces with an eclectic-chic aesthetic.A decorative pair of great
