Description

An antique Italian painting from the first half of the 18th century. This oil-on-canvas work--mounted onto a small wooden panel--depicts a religious subject: Saint Martin. The painting is oval-shaped, with pleasing dimensions and proportions, making it an excellent choice for antique dealers, interior designers, and collectors. It is housed in a 20th-century carved and gilded (bronze-toned) wooden frame with attractive decorative detailing. The scene portrays Saint Martin on horseback, cutting a portion of his own cloak to give to a beggar. Executed in grisaille, the painting employs various shades of gray, white, and black. There is a small loss of paint on the horse (see photo), which could be easily restored. The painting has undergone a
