Description

JAPAN - Meiji period (1868-1912). Black lacquered wood kimonokake, with feet, uprights, and crossbars adorned with a clan tone. Very good condition overall. Dimensions: 167.5 x 181 x 37 cm. Notes: Kimonokake are meant to hang and present the kimono when not worn. They allow the garment to be unfolded in order to preserve its folds and highlight its decorative motifs. Their design responds to the Japanese art of conservation and presentation of textiles, in which the kimono is considered a valuable object, whose painted silks, embroideries and dyes deserve to be admired even outside the body.
