Description

A pair of vintage side tables from the 1970s, combining a geometric structure in gold-plated brass with beautiful, thick, clear Securit glass tops. Their graphic, cross-shaped base adds an architectural and refined touch, typical of the design of that era. The combination of glass and brass gives them a look that is at once light, chic, and timeless. These two side tables will fit perfectly in a contemporary living room, an Italian-style interior, or a vintage-chic decor scheme. They can be placed on either side of a sofa or used as standalone side tables. A lovely decorative pair that will appeal to lovers of vintage furniture and 1970s design. Features: Era: 1970s Materials: brass and glass Height: 40 cm Tabletop dimensions: 57 × 57 cm Condition: vintage, with signs of wear on the brass (see
