Description

Dimensions: 24 × 17 × 12 cm. Weight: 1 kg. A beautiful lidded sugar bowl with a matching tray, made from Paris porcelain, with white and gold decoration. On reverse, it bears the mark of two torches, painted in blue under glaze, used by Locré manufactory circa 1775-1780. Decoration, Marie Antoinette style, is richly enhanced with gold that has remained vivid, features a scattering of polychrome roses and small flowers, framed by gold friezes with foliage motifs. Two birds painted in sepia tones adorn the lid. Condition is remarkable, nearly like new, which is rare for 18th-century porcelain. No cracks, chips, or restorations to report. Immediate purchase: payment by credit card or PayPal. eclectic -- We are not experts, but have been in this business for over 50 years. Full refund with no questions asked
