PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Large Four-door Glass-fronted Bookcase Made Of Solid Softwood - 19th Century

4 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Width : 360

Height : 250

Depth : 59

Description

Large Four-Door Glass-Fronted Bookcase in Solid Softwood - 19th Century A magnificent and imposing antique bookcase made of solid softwood, dating from the 19th century.This very large piece features a simple, elegant, and perfectly balanced design, characteristic of the grand bookcases found in mansions, private libraries, or studies.The front features four large glass-paned doors, each divided into small panes by thin vertical mullions and adorned with molded panels at the bottom.The piece is topped by a beautiful, projecting molded cornice resting on straight uprights and finished with a continuous baseboard.The interior offers ample storage space thanks to its numerous shelves spanning the full width of the cabinet, allowing for the display of a large collection of books,

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

antique documents, or collectibles.The sides, featuring molded panels, also attest to the care taken in its craftsmanship.The wood displays a beautiful antique patina in shades of honey and golden brown, highlighting the natural grain and authentic character of this bookcase.A particularly spectacular piece of furniture due to its size, ideal for furnishing a large library, an office, a historic home, an antique shop, or an exhibition space.Period: 19th century.Wood type: solid wood, softwood.Dimensions:Height: 250 cmWidth: 360 cmDepth: 59 cmCondition: in good overall condition, with signs of use, minor marks, and a patina of age, consistent with its age.A grand bookcase that combines elegance, simplicity, and functionality, now highly sought after for furnishing large interiors.