PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Large Six-drawer Weekly Cabinet In Walnut - Louis-philippe Period - 19th Century

1 100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 100

Height : 148

Depth : 52

Description

Large Six-Drawer Weekly Planner in Walnut - Louis-Philippe Period - 19th Century An elegant and imposing antique six-drawer weekly planner from the Louis-Philippe period, dating from the 19th century.This piece features a beautiful walnut front, displaying remarkable symmetrical flamed grain patterns that are particularly decorative.With a straight, architecturally inspired form, it is topped by a slightly overhanging top, accentuated by subtle molding.The straight side panels with rounded corners rest on a molded baseboard and small legs.The front features six large stacked drawers, each adorned with a bone lock plate.The drawers feature traditional dovetail joints, reflecting meticulous craftsmanship.The interior and sides of the drawers are made of light-colored

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

wood.This piece captivates with the simplicity of its lines, the harmony of its proportions, and above all, the beauty of its warm-toned walnut.Both elegant and functional, it will easily find its place in a bedroom, living room, entryway, or a home with character.Period: Louis-Philippe, 19th century, circa 1830-1840.Dimensions:Height: 148 cmWidth: 100 cmDepth: 52 cmCondition: in good cosmetic condition, with signs of use and minor marks due to its age.A beautiful 19th-century storage cabinet, prized for its six spacious drawers and magnificent wood carvings.