19th-century Wall Hanging Made Of Linen, Lace, And Floral Appliqués

380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Width : 146 cm

Height : 167 cm

Description

An antique 19th-century wall hanging, a charming piece with an authentic character, rich in detail and textile craftsmanship.Crafted from natural linen, this wall hanging is enhanced by delicate panels of floral lace along the sides, which lend it an air of elegance.The center is adorned with stunning cotton fabric appliqués featuring bouquets of flowers in shades of red, blue, dusty rose, and weathered tones. Embroidery and decorative embellishments complete this poetic composition.The upper portion features lovely geometric and decorative motifs, while the bottom is embellished with long linen fringes and macramé tassels, crafted in a traditional artisanal style, which highlight the piece's unique character.Characteristics:Period: 19th centuryMain material: linenDecor: floral

Dealer

Atelier 21
Antiques and décoration
Mobile : 0609457367

Samonac 33710

lace, floral cotton appliqués, and textile ornaments, all handmade.Colors: natural linen, red, blue, dusty pink, and antique tonesFinish: long fringes and linen macramé tasselsCondition: unwashed antique piece with a patina; no holes or stains.A charming decorative piece that can be hung on the wall, ideal for a country home, a bohemian interior, or a romantic decor scheme that would suit many rooms.It can adorn a wall, add character to a bedroom above a bed or elsewhere, and find its place in the home of a collector of antique textiles.A unique wall hanging, with beautiful handmade details and a striking decorative presence, that will appeal to lovers of antique linens and objects steeped in history.Dimensions: Width: 146 cmHeight: 146 cm + 21 cm, for a total height of 167 cmFor more information, please feel free to contact us.