

Large Vase Covered Urn In Fine Earthenware (pipe Clay) Neoclassical Medici Style Mar

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 34cm

Height : 70cm

Description

A large, lidded ornamental vase made of fine "pipe clay" earthenware features an elegant cream-white hue and a neoclassical style of great refinement. A true collector's item or ceremonial piece, this complete three-part set (vase, openwork riser, and lid topped with a pine cone) is distinguished by its rich relief decorations, notably its handles adorned with Bacchic mascarons featuring faun heads, its floral garlands, acanthus leaves, and upper frieze with rosettes. The set rests on an elegant pedestal and a square base. An intaglio stamped mark on the reverse, depicting a crown surmounting a monogram, attests to the meticulous craftsmanship of this period piece. In very good overall condition, the ceramic features fine natural crazing (glaze cracks) that lends it an

Dealer

Eleousa gallery

Antiquités

Mobile : 0749880239

4 place de la croix

Ouroux-sur-Saône 71370

authentic patina and old-world charm.