Description

A spectacular set of three decorative pedestals crafted in the tradition of the famous French Boulle style. The architectural composition of each pedestal draws inspiration from the principles of ceremonial furniture from the Louis XIV era and is distinguished by the monumentality of its forms, the richness of its decoration, and the elegance of its craftsmanship. The bodies are crafted from black-stained wood and adorned with engraved brass and tin marquetry forming sumptuous ornamental compositions of acanthus leaves, volutes, cartouches, and symmetrical arabesques.The set is distinguished by powerful side volutes reminiscent of the carved consoles found in grand Baroque interiors. The upper section is crowned by an imposing cornice adorned with a relief frieze composed of acanthus leaves and stylized palmettes. The contrast between the black lacquered background, the silver-colored metal inlays, and the gilded ornaments creates the effect of luxury and depth characteristic of the Boulle technique. The bases are embellished with rosettes and appliqués imitating chiseled bronze.Thanks to their rigorous architectural composition and the remarkable quality of their craftsmanship, these pedestals are designed for displaying sculptures, vases, clocks, candelabras, or other decorative art objects. They can be used as a cohesive set or as independent pieces while maintaining their aesthetic unity.Materials: Wood, brass, pewter, non-ferrous metal alloys.Dimensions: Height 120 cm; Width 55 cm; Depth 45 cm.Condition: Good condition.ID-ANTQ-16255
