Description

In remarkable condition, this beautiful and imposing parlor chest of drawers--with straight, trapezoidal legs, three high, scalloped cross-shelves, and a small drawer along the base--is an elegant and highly practical piece. Functional and generously sized, it can beautifully display even heavy objects. Crafted from high-quality, well-seasoned walnut with a rich patina and a meticulous finish, it features a beautiful top shelf with a "beak of corbin" design and two equidistant, functional shelves; a beautiful decorative piece in all its simplicity, ideal for a refined display in all its late 19th-century elegance, in perfect condition (no signs of aging or insect damage). A beautiful, useful, and practical piece.
